university of north texas ♪ June 14- 18, 2010

The University of North Texas College of Music has been host to Mary Karen Clardy's master classes for two decades. The College of Music, with an annual enrollment of over 1500 music majors, offers spacious performance facilities and classrooms with state-of-the-art technology. The University of North Texas, Denton campus, is a brief thirty-minute drive from DFW International Airport.

mary karen clardy, Mary Karen Clardy, Regents Professor of Flute at the University of North Texas, appears as soloist and chamber artist throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Britain, Europe, Asia, and South America with numerous performances for the National Flute Association and the British Flute Society.

Her recordings include Sonatas and Sonatinas, after syrinx..., with October Trio, and The Solo Flute Past to Present, for the EPR label; a solo recital of American music for the BBC's Radio 3 and orchestral recordings for the Pro Arts, Dorian, and Klavier labels.

Renowned as a teacher, she regularly presents master classes at home and abroad, and her students are consistent winners of international and national competitions, holding prestigious orchestral and faculty positions throughout the world. An established author, Ms Clardy's award-winning publications are in multiple reprint.

Flute!<sup>TM</sup> Fundamentals Pedagogy Class 2010

Flutists of a varying range of experience can observe master teaching and interact with both teacher and students in daily sessions. Basics of embouchure, breathing, tone production, articulation and technique are addressed in class settings.

practice

Classes include fundamentals of scales/arpeggios, with particular emphasis on practice methods. Various methods, including Mary Karen Clardy's Flute Fundamentals I and II, Classic Solos 1 and 2, the Flute Etude Books I and II, and Classic Duets 1 and 2 are used throughout the class to address pedagogy issues.

production

In the 21st century, flutists are required to submit recorded performances for private and commercial release, and digital recording technology allows the production of high-quality recordings. Basic recording techniques, microphone selection, placement, planning of recording sessions, and other elements are included in the class with individual coaching in how to produce a quality recording. Performers are instructed in the most effective techniques for the best recorded product.

graduate credit

Upon acceptance to UNT, graduate credit may be obtained for the Flute!<sup>TM</sup> Fundamentals Pedagogy Class 2010. Advanced Teacher Training Credit for Texas Educators may be certified for maximum hours.
