mary karen clardy,

Mary Karen Clardy, Regents Professor of Flute at the University of North Texas, appears as soloist and chamber artist throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Britain, Europe, Asia, and South America, with numerous performances for the National Flute Association and the British Flute Society.

Her recordings include Sonatas and Sonatinas, after syrinx..., with October Trio, and The Solo Flute Past to Present, for the EPR label; a solo recital of American music for the BBC's Radio 3 and orchestral recordings for the Pro Arts, Dorian, and Klavier labels.

Renowned as a teacher, she regularly presents master classes at home and abroad, and her students are consistent winners of international and national competitions, holding prestigious orchestral and faculty positions throughout the world. An established author, Ms Clardy's award-winning publications are in multiple reprint.

Flute!TM in Crested Butte, 2010

performance

Flutists perform in a laboratory setting with audience observation and participation in each session. Flutists are coached in various performing genres including concert, competition, orchestra audition, and recording techniques.

Classes include fundamentals of scales/arpeggios, with particular emphasis on practice methods. Various methods, including Mary Karen Clardy's Flute Fundamentals Books I and II, the Flute Etudes Books I and II, and Altès Daily Exercises are used throughout the class to address individual strengths and challenges.

production

In the 21st century, flutists are required to submit recorded performances for private and commercial release, and digital recording technology allows the production of high-quality recordings. Basic recording techniques, microphone placement, planning of recording sessions, and other elements are included in the class, with individual coaching in how to produce a quality recording. Performers are instructed in the most effective playing techniques for the best recorded product.
