The University of North Texas College of Music has been host to Mary Karen Clardy's master classes for two decades. The college, which maintains an annual enrollment of over 1500 music majors, offers spacious performance facilities and classrooms with state-of-the-art technology. The University of North Texas, located in Denton, is a brief thirty-minute drive from the easily accessible DFW International Airport.

Mary Karen Clardy, Regents Professor of Flute at the University of North Texas, appears as soloist and chamber artist throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Britain, Europe, Asia, and South America with numerous performances for the National Flute Association and the British Flute Society.

Her recordings include Sonatas and Sonatinas, after syrinx..., with October Trio, and The Solo Flute Past to Present, for the EPR label; a solo recital of American music for the BBC's Radio 3 and orchestral recordings for the Pro Arts, Dorian, and Klavier labels.

Renowned as a teacher, she regularly presents master classes at home and abroad, and her students are consistent winners of international and national competitions, holding prestigious orchestral and faculty positions throughout the world. An established author, Ms Clardy's award-winning publications are in multiple reprint.

performance

Flutists perform in a laboratory setting with audience observation and participate in each session. Flutists are coached in various performing genres including concert, artist competition, orchestra audition, and recording scenarios.

practice

Classes include fundamentals of scales, arpeggios, etc., with particular emphasis on practice methods. Various methods, including Mary Karen Clardy's Flute Fundamentals I and II; Etudes Books I and II; Classic Solos 1 and 2; and Classic Duets 1 and 2 are used throughout the class to address individual strengths and challenges.

production

In the 21st century, musicians are required to submit recorded performances for private and commercial release, and digital recording technology allows the production of high-quality recordings. Basic recording techniques, microphone selection, placement, planning of recording sessions, and other components are included in the class with individual coaching to produce the highest quality recording. Most importantly, performers are instructed in the most effective playing techniques for the best recorded product.
