performance

Flutists perform in a laboratory setting with audience observation and participation in each session, with coaching in various performing genres including concert, competition, orchestra audition, and recording techniques.

Classes include fundamentals of scales, arpeggios, with particular emphasis on practice methods. Various methods, including Mary Karen Clardy's Flute Fundamentals I and II; Etudes Books I and II; Classic Solos 1 and 2; and Classic Duets 1 and 2 are used throughout the class to address individual strengths and challenges.

production

In the 21st century, flutists are required to submit recorded performances for private and commercial release, and digital recording technology allows the production of high-quality recordings. Basic recording techniques, microphone selection, placement, planning of recording sessions, and other elements are included in the class with individual coaching in how to produce a quality recording. Performers are instructed in the most effective techniques for the best recorded product.
